One-of-a Kind Old French Provence Home in the highly sought after Kingfisher Creek

This 565 sq metre home offers outstanding features harking back to the Mediterranean style of the French Provencal villas. The rustic stone construction, terra cotta roof tiles and wooden shutters add to the charm. The cottage pane windows, wrought iron balustrading and finishes all enhance this unique style. From the street, the property leads through an arched portico into a reception area. There is also separate access to the downstairs areas of the home. This means the property could be maximised for dual living.

Built over three levels, there is an open-plan lounge on the main floor with a fireplace, a dining area, a designer kitchen, and a scullery. The lounge also opens out onto a magnificent sunroom. Also on this main level are three bedrooms with the main en suite. A set of stairs leads up to a bar and roof deck....
